

Inglés técnico-sanitario

Objetivo

Adquirir el lenguaje necesario para comunicarse en inglés sobre atención sanitaria, valoración de pacientes y situaciones de emergencia.

Qué trabajarás

Anatomía, servicios de emergencias, evaluación clínica, traumatismos y comunicación con pacientes y equipos sanitarios.

50 Horas de teoría.

B1 Nivel MCER recomendado.

6 Unidades.

Programa del curso

Unit 1: The Human Body

- 01 The Human Body - Face
This lessons presents the necessary vocabulary to identify parts of the face.
- 02 The Human Body - Limbs
This lessons presents the necessary vocabulary to identify limbs.
- 03 The Human Body - Internal Organs
This lessons presents the necessary vocabulary to identify internal organs.
- 04 The Human Body - Skeleton
This lessons presents the necessary vocabulary to identify the main bones in the human skeleton.
- 05 The Human Body - Sentences
This lesson recycles the vocabulary covered in the first part of the course.
- 06 The Human Body - Exercises
This lesson provides contextual practice of the vocabulary covered in the unit.
- 07 Test exercises
This lesson tests the learners' retention of the vocabulary from the unit.

Unit 2: Emergencies

- 08 Ambulance Equipment
This lesson focuses on the equipment typical carried in an ambulance.
- 09 Medical Emergencies
This lesson is an introduction to some of the most common medical emergencies that emergency medical teams encounter.
- 10 Emergency Medical Personnel
This lesson covers vocabulary related to medical professionals.
- 11 Emergency Medical Services - Vocabulary
This lesson provides the vocabulary necessary to talk about Emergency Medical Services, describing the function of each area.
- 12 Emergency Medical Services - Language
This lesson presents the passive voice in the context of explaining a system or sequence of events.
- 13 Emergency Medical Services - A day in the life of a dispatcher
This lesson presents an example of the routine an emergency call dispatcher follows at work.
- 14 Emergency Medical Services - Being a paramedic
This lesson gives a first-hand account of a paramedic's duties.
- 15 Test exercises
This lesson tests the learners' retention of the vocabulary from the unit.

Unit 3: Patient assessment I

- 16 Vital Signs - Vocabulary
This lesson covers the vocabulary used to talk about checking a patient's vital signs.
- 17 Vital Signs - Language
This lesson covers some useful language for checking a patient's vital signs and giving instructions.
- 18 Patient care - Vocabulary
This lesson covers some of the most common patient ailments and illnesses and the typical ways to treat them.
- 19 Patient Care - Language
This lesson covers the area of asking direct and indirect questions as part of patient diagnosis and care.
- 20 Moving & Transporting Patients - Vocabulary
This lesson presents the vocabulary needed to talk about ways to move patients in different situations.
- 21 Moving & Transporting Patients - Language
This lesson covers grammatical structures that are useful in day-to-day patient care.
- 22 Test exercises
This lesson tests the learners' retention of the vocabulary and structures from the unit.

Unit 4: Patient assessment II

- 23 Respiratory Emergencies - Vocabulary
This lesson introduces the names of some of the most common respiratory emergencies and typical symptoms.
- 24 Respiratory Emergencies - Language
This lesson looks at the form and use of defining and non-defining relative clauses and includes a conversation about a patient with breathing difficulties between a doctor and nurse.
- 25 Mechanical Ventilation - Vocabulary
This lesson introduces some of the common vocabulary that is used when using mechanical ventilation.
- 26 Mechanical Ventilation - Language
This lesson covers how to use comparatives and superlatives correctly.
- 27 Administering Oxygen - Vocabulary
This lesson presents the vocabulary used when administering oxygen.
- 28 Administering Oxygen - Language
This lesson presents some phrasal verbs that are commonly used to talk about illness, injury or recuperation.
- 29 Test exercises
This lesson tests the learners' retention of the vocabulary and structures from the unit.

Unit 5: Trauma and other emergencies I

- 30 Cuts & Wounds - Vocabulary
This lesson introduces the language used to talk about different types of cuts and wounds.
- 31 Cuts & Wounds - Language
This lesson reviews the changes between direct and reported speech.
- 32 Burns - Vocabulary
This lesson presents the vocabulary needed to talk about types of burns and how to treat them.
- 33 Burns - Language
This lesson covers some examples of burn accidents using a range of past tenses.
- 34 Thoracic & Abdominal Trauma - Vocabulary
This lesson covers vocabulary to describe and discuss thoracic and abdominal trauma.
- 35 Thoracic & Abdominal Trauma - Language
This lesson covers a range of past tenses and describes some common injuries to the thorax and abdomen.
- 36 Test exercises
This lesson tests the learners' retention of the vocabulary and structures from the unit.

Unit 6: Trauma and other emergencies II

37 Neck & Face Injuries - Vocabulary

This lesson introduces vocabulary about common neck and face injuries and some of their accompanying symptoms.

38 Neck & Face Injuries - Language

This lesson covers the topic of word formation - changing adjectives to nouns, verbs to adverbs, etc.

39 Spinal Injuries - Vocabulary

This lesson presents the most commonly used vocabulary in the area of spinal injuries.

40 Spinal Injuries - Language

This lesson looks at some situations dealing with different spinal injuries.

41 Other Situations & Emergencies

This lesson covers a number of different health issues and the vocabulary to talk about them.

42 Management skills: Personnel & Public

This lesson introduces information about a range of management styles with a short text about managing a hospital, the personnel who work there as well as the general public, or users of the services.

43 Test exercises

This lesson tests the learners' retention of the vocabulary and structures from the unit.

Final test

44 Final test

Learners answer a series of questions that test the language and structures covered during the course.